

Funeral Rites Held For Heber Matron

HEBER CITY, Utah.—Mrs. Eunice S. Hicken, 62, widow of the late Orson Thomas Hicken, died at her home in Heber City Friday evening. She had been ill for 16 years. She was born Dec. 11, 1877, in Heber City, daughter of John H. and Mary Gallagher Murdock. She was married Nov. 22, 1898, in the Salt Lake temple to Mr. Hicken, who died four years ago. Seven of their 15 children survive. Mrs. Mildred Stanley, Nello Hicken, Mrs. Phyllis Gilles of Tabiona, Mrs. Ella Dahlman, Grant and Thomas Hicken of Heber City and Mrs. Genevieve Allen of Mapleton; she also is survived by 19 grandchildren. Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murdock of Orem and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Millie Witt, Mrs. Sadie Thurman of Heber City, Mrs. Pearl Buckley and Mrs. Elias Sellers of Provo, Joseph Stanley, Mrs. Lee Kay and Mrs. Marilla Stanley, Mrs. Joseph Murdock of Idaho Falls, Mrs. Ellen Patton of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Edith Murdock of Provo and Edith Murdock of Orem. She was a faithful member of the Church, Social Service Society and Relief Society, many years active with her church. She was a faithful and devoted nurse, helping wherever needed when no doctor was within many miles. Funeral will be held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Heber Third Ward Chapel, in charge of Eldon Ralph Gilles. Interment will be in the Heber City Cemetery. Friends may call at the Ogden Brothers Mortuary Saturday and Sunday, and at the home of Mrs. Millie Witt, one mile south of Heber City, Sunday evening and Monday until three o'clock.

Funeral Rites Held For Heber Matron

HEBER CITY, Utah.—Mrs. Eunice S. Hicken, 62, widow of the late Orson Thomas Hicken, died at her home in Heber City Friday evening. She had been ill for 16 years. She was born Dec. 11, 1877, in Heber City, daughter of John H. and Mary Gallagher Murdock. She was married Nov. 22, 1898, in the Salt Lake temple to Mr. Hicken, who died four years ago. Seven of their 15 children survive. Mrs. Mildred Stanley, Nello Hicken, Mrs. Phyllis Gilles of Tabiona, Mrs. Ella Dahlman, Grant and Thomas Hicken of Heber City and Mrs. Genevieve Allen of Mapleton; she also is survived by 19 grandchildren. Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murdock of Orem and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Millie Witt, Mrs. Sadie Thurman of Heber City, Mrs. Pearl Buckley and Mrs. Elias Sellers of Provo, Joseph Stanley, Mrs. Lee Kay and Mrs. Marilla Stanley, Mrs. Joseph Murdock of Idaho Falls, Mrs. Ellen Patton of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Edith Murdock of Provo and Edith Murdock of Orem. She was a faithful member of the Church, Social Service Society and Relief Society, many years active with her church. She was a faithful and devoted nurse, helping wherever needed when no doctor was within many miles. Funeral will be held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Heber Third Ward Chapel, in charge of Eldon Ralph Gilles. Interment will be in the Heber City Cemetery. Friends may call at the Ogden Brothers Mortuary Saturday and Sunday, and at the home of Mrs. Millie Witt, one mile south of Heber City, Sunday evening and Monday until three o'clock.

Funeral Rites Held For Heber Matron

Funeral services for Mrs. Eunice S. Hicken, 62, were conducted Monday afternoon in the Heber Third ward chapel and burial followed in the Heber cemetery. Bishop Ralph Gilles conducted the services.

Mrs. Hicken, who had been ill for 16 years, died at her home last Friday evening. She was the widow of Orson Thomas Hicken, who preceded her in death four years ago. Speakers at the services Monday were Joseph A. Rasband of Heber, Benjamin Turnbow of Tabiona and Guy Jones of Kansas. The latter two became acquainted with Mrs. Hicken during her residence in Tabiona, where she served as president of the Relief Society for many years. She was beloved for her wide service as a nurse and gave valuable aid many times when doctors were not available. She was born December 11, 1877 at Heber, daughter of John H. and Mary Gallagher Murdock. She was married Nov. 22, 1898, in the Salt Lake temple to Mr. Hicken.

Seven of their fifteen children survive. Mrs. Mildred Stanley, Nello Hicken and Mrs. Phyllis Gilles of Tabiona, Mrs. Ellis Dahlman, Grant and Thomas Hicken of Heber, and Mrs. Genevieve Allen of Mapleton. She is also survived by 19 grandchildren, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murdock of Orem, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Millie Witt and Mrs. Sadie Thurman of Heber, Mrs. Pearl Buckley and Mrs. Elias Sellers of Provo, Joseph Murdock of Idaho Falls, Mrs. Marilla Stanley, Mrs. Leah Kay and Thomas Murdock of Heber, Paul Murdock of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Ellen Patton of Provo and Edith Murdock of Orem.

Funeral Rites Held For Heber Matron

Funeral services for Mrs. Eunice S. Hicken, 62, were conducted Monday afternoon in the Heber Third ward chapel and burial followed in the Heber cemetery. Bishop Ralph Gilles conducted the services.

Mrs. Hicken, who had been ill for 16 years, died at her home last Friday evening. She was the widow of Orson Thomas Hicken, who preceded her in death four years ago. Speakers at the services Monday were Joseph A. Rasband of Heber, Benjamin Turnbow of Tabiona and Guy Jones of Kansas. The latter two became acquainted with Mrs. Hicken during her residence in Tabiona, where she served as president of the Relief Society for many years. She was beloved for her wide service as a nurse and gave valuable aid many times when doctors were not available. She was born December 11, 1877 at Heber, daughter of John H. and Mary Gallagher Murdock. She was married Nov. 22, 1898, in the Salt Lake temple to Mr. Hicken.

Seven of their fifteen children survive. Mrs. Mildred Stanley, Nello Hicken and Mrs. Phyllis Gilles of Tabiona, Mrs. Ellis Dahlman, Grant and Thomas Hicken of Heber, and Mrs. Genevieve Allen of Mapleton. She is also survived by 19 grandchildren, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murdock of Orem, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Millie Witt and Mrs. Sadie Thurman of Heber, Mrs. Pearl Buckley and Mrs. Elias Sellers of Provo, Joseph Murdock of Idaho Falls, Mrs. Marilla Stanley, Mrs. Leah Kay and Thomas Murdock of Heber, Paul Murdock of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Ellen Patton of Provo and Edith Murdock of Orem.